

USAHA Display Tables

129th USAHA Annual Meeting
October 30-November 5, 2025
Gaylord Rockies Hotel
Aurora (Denver), CO

USAHA is again pleased to offer the opportunity for organizations and sponsors to set up table-top displays as part of its 129th Annual Meeting.

USAHA will permit display tables on Sunday, November 2 through Tuesday, November 4 for organizations and companies that support and advance the mission and purpose of USAHA.

Display table vendors should meet one of the following criteria:

1. Companies providing products, services or technologies that enhance the work of officials in disease surveillance, control, eradication, including identification, data management, or on-farm/veterinary tools.
2. Organizations offering education, information, training, or opportunities aligning with the mission and purpose of USAHA. These can include the advancement of regulatory veterinary medicine, the veterinary profession, or animal health initiatives supporting of a safe, secure food supply.

USAHA displays will be set in a general pre-function area. USAHA will provide one 6 foot table for use, and a power supply. General wireless internet will be available.

Displays should be:

- 1.) Free-standing – no hanging banners
- 2.) Fit within the table area

Additional needs should be discussed with USAHA staff, and will be considered based upon availability. Vendor displays should be set up not before 12:00 pm on Sunday, November 2. USAHA provides additional considerations to its non-profit partners that display during the meeting. Tear-down for display tables is at the discretion of the individual vendor can be done Tuesday after 5:00 p.m.

USAHA does not provide set hours for displays, and vendors hold entire responsibility for all aspects of their display. USAHA nor host facility is not responsible for displays, damages, theft, liabilities or claims involved with these displays. Dedicated security is not provided for the displays.

Cost: $1000.00, includes 1 full meeting registration. Discounted registration is available for additional attendees with your company.

Additional sponsorship opportunities are available and can include a display table setup.

For questions, please contact Ben Richey at usaha@usaha.org or 816-671-1144

USAHA displays are separate of the American Association of Veterinary Diagnosticians Exhibits (AAVLD). Please see for more information at www.aavld.org. Organizations may participate in both options; separate fees and registration do apply.

To request your spot, please complete the USAHA Display Table Form below.

Please Note:

Display Tables are subject to space availability. USAHA provides Display Table opportunities to companies and organizations that align and support the mission and purpose of USAHA. Display Table requests are subject to review and approval, and USAHA reserves the right to refuse any request upon review.
