

present

Safeguarding U.S. Livestock from New World Screwworm:

A complete approach to prevention, treatment and animal movements

Tuesday, September 23 – Grand Street Café
6:00 – 7:30 pm	Welcome reception Overview and charge for the meeting	Dr. Peter Mundschenk Dr. Michael Short
Wednesday, September 24 – Kauffman Foundation Conference Center – TOWN SQUARE room
7:30	Breakfast
8:00 – 8:15	Opening remarks	Dr. Peter Mundschenk, Pres., USAHA
8:15 – 9:30	Overview of NWS biology and research updates	Dr. Denise Bonilla, USDA-APHIS-VS Dr. Kim Lohmeyer, USDA-ARS
9:30 – 10:30	NWS situation update and preparedness in the US	Dr. Adis Dijab, USDA-APHIS-VS Dr. Megan Schmid, USDA-APHIS-VS
10:30 – 10:45	Break
10:45 – 11:30	United States – Mexico Partnership: Enhancing Mexico's Response to New World Screwworm	Dr. Kari Coulson, USDA-APHIS-VS
11:30 – 12:00	Overview of Interagency Coordination	Dr. Sarah Speth, USDA-APHIS-VS
12:00 – 12:30	Public health perspectives on NWS	Dr. Anne Straily, CDC
12:30 – 1:30	Lunch
1:30 – 2:30	Review of approved products and approval processes for additional products	Dr. Ellen Hart, FDA Dr. Tristan Colonius, FDA Ms. Jennifer Gaines, EPA
2:30 – 2:45	Break
2:45 – 4:30	Review of myiasis treatments and preventatives in use in other countries	Dr. Diane Kitchen, FDACS Dr. Edwin Burgess, U of F Dr. Phillip Kaufman, TAMU
4:30 – 5:00	Review and recap	Dr. Dee Ellis

Thursday, September 25 – Kauffman Foundation Conference Center – TOWN SQUARE room
7:30 am	Breakfast
8:00 – 8:15	Opening remarks	Dr. Peter Mundschenk, Pres., USAHA
8:15 – 9:15	NASAHO Working Group update	Dr. Mike Short, FDACS Dr. Nicki Humphrey, CDFA
9:15 – 10:15	Moderated discussion for white paper development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Treatments - Preventatives 	Dr. Dee Ellis, TAMU
10:15 – 10:30	Break
10:30 – 12:00	Moderated discussion for white paper development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Quarantine areas - Movement controls 	Dr. Dee Ellis, TAMU

Thank you to our sponsors!

